VIRGINIA—CHANCERY COURT OF
THE CITY OF RICHMOND.

Be it known, That the Pabst Browing Company, a Wisconsin corporation, is engaged in manufacturing, bottling and selling lager beer, and in particular is engaged in bottling and selling in bottles larger beer in the cities of Newport News, Norfolk, Richmond and Lynciburg and other cities in the State of Virginia, and on the bottles so used in the said business in the said State of Virginia, the Pabst Browing Company uses the following trade mark and device—to-wit:

(1) On the side of the bottle, blown in the glass, a trade mark or-device consisting of an innor circle about one and three-eighths inches in diameter, enclosing a hop leaf with letter "B" superimposed at the center of the leaf, and outside of the inner circle and concentric with it another circle about two and onefourth inches in diameter, there being between the inner and outer circles the word "Pabst" at the top and the word
"Miswakee" at the bottom.

(2) Another trade mark or device on the side of the bottle and blown in the glass similar to the lired described and in addition encircling the lower outside of the outer, or two and one-fourth inch

'CANNON BALL'' TRAIN | MANY BENEFITTED HAS A CLOSE CALL

Front Truck of Engine Left the Close Canvass of City Reveals Tracks-Engineer's Presence of Mind Saved Day.

The "Cannon Ball," the Norfolk and Western's fast flyer, came near being wrecked at Falling Creek yesterday moraing when the front trucks of the engine left the tracks and rolled over the cross for some distance before the train could be brought to a standstill by Engineer D. P. Cousins.

The train was due in Richmond at 11:45 clock, and arrived here shortly after o'clock, with somewhat frightened, but entirely unburt, passengers. The presence of mind of Engineer Cousins, who aw the front trucks leaves the tracks, evidently prevented a disaster that would been terrible. Engineer Cousins clapped on the brakes at once, and soon had his engine under control. A train left Richmond and the passengers were transferred to this and brought to the city. The wrecking was soon cleared away, and the schedule of other trains was not seriously interfered with. Conductor Farrar was in charge of the

These reports were made in the meeting

After going over the lists of prominent business men, citizens of Richmond in all the professions and branches of commerce and trade, the committee decided to make a thorough curvass for the re-maining $15,000, and meet again in Murphy's Hotel Monday afternoon at 4:30 to compare notes and report on the pro-ress made.

The following members of the two com-

fair here.

After the adjournment of the meeting, in which all the members of the committee had reported on their respective day's work, Chairman Henry & Stuart and Joseph Bryan agreed that the fair day's work, Chairman Henry C. Stuart and Josoph Bryan agreed that the fair seemed assured, and the remaining amount would be subscribed by or before Friday night.

Main, Cary and other principal business streets were divided among the other members of the committee, who started their recanvass yesterday, and most of them will spend the major portion of to-day and to-morrow in the work.

Practically every member of the committee expressed the bellef that he could raise the $1,00 alloted to him to procure, and some expressed confidence in their and some expressed confidence in their ability to do even more.

MAIMED WHITE MAN TO JAIL FOR BEGGING

Robert Duggins, a white man with one leg, was placed under security in the sum of $300 by Justice Crutchfield yeaterday morning on the charge of begging on the street and resisting an officer in the discharge of his duty.

Officer Wright and Officer Oglivle made the arrest, and it is alleged that the first named officer brutally struck the crippled man with his caub. An Odd-Fellow who witnessed the clubbing of the prisoner, is said to have made a complaint with the Police Commissioners, and this will be looked into.

In Police Court yesterday morning Policeman Oglivle testified that the prisoner was very unrily, and that when he arrived on the scene Officer Wright was grappling with him. Mr. Oglivle had several bruises on his face that he says were made by the man Ricking him.
